ONLY ONE DOLLAR A YEAR!

The Domestic Monthly.

THE CHEAPEST GOOD MAGAZINE PUBLISHED.

The "DOMESTIC MONTHLY" is a beautifully illustrated magazine devoted to FASHION, LITERATURE, and the FINE ARTS. It contains serial and short stories and poems by authors of acknowledged reputation. Its Editorial Departments are filled with comments on the latest productions in the world of science and letters. A Household Department, consisting of charming papers in each number on domestic topics, by and a review of the fashions of the month, with hints as to coming styles, from the advisers of Paris and London special correspondents, by one of the ablest fashion writers in the country. The fashion articles are profusely illustrated and minutely described, and are by far the most complete and exhaustive of any magazine published.

As a Special Inducement we call attention to our NEW AND GREATEST PREMIUM, A MAGNIFICENT PICTURE OF MRS. LANGTRY.

The publishers of the "Domestic Monthly" beg leave to announce that they have prepared a magnificent picture of the beautiful Mrs. Langtry, popularly known as the "Jewelry Queen," which they will present to every subscriber, before Jan. 1st, 1883, in return for the payment of one year's subscription. The picture is by the late artist and is a splendid color work, the result of which is London has been Mrs. Langtry. It is the finest picture of Mrs. Langtry that has been seen in the country in the judgment of the critics who have seen it, and has been the subject of much comment.

MR. HENRY E. ARREY, SENDS US THIS LETTER:

"I have pleasure in recommending the picture of Mrs. Langtry which you send me, and which I have seen in the gallery of the late artist, I have seen it."

Remember, we present this magnificent picture to every New Subscriber to the "DOMESTIC MONTHLY" before March 1st, 1883.

READ THIS GREAT OFFER:

For ONE DOLLAR we will send, postage prepaid, a PICTURE OF MRS. LANGTRY, One Dollar's worth of the "Domestic" Paper Patterns, and the "DOMESTIC MONTHLY" for one year.
